Lydia Patterson Institute (LPI) understands and respect the concerns donors have in regards to the use of their private, personal information and the importance of keeping such information confidential.

Any information supplied to LPI by donors will be used solely to fulfill their donation and shall not be shared for any reason unless permission is granted by the donor to share such information. All requests to remain anonymous shall be honored. LPI does not sell or share donor lists. Donors who supply LPI with their postal address or email address may be contacted periodically for solicitation purposes and/or with information regarding upcoming events. All donors have the option of being placed on a "once-a-year" mailing list which grants LPI permission to contact them only once per year. Donors may request to be permanently removed from LPI's mailing list by contacting us via email, phone or postal mail. All requests to be removed from LPI's mailing list shall be honored. Donors who supply LPI with their telephone number shall only be contacted by telephone regarding donations they have made. LPI does not participate in telephone fundraising activities.
